Tutoring Experience

With 5 years of tutoring experience, I've worked with students from various curriculums, helping them tackle challenging biology topics, such as cellular biology, genetics, and ecosystems. My students have consistently improved their performance in exams and gained confidence in their abilities.

In addition to IB Biology, I also tutor A-Level and IGCSE Biology, ensuring students are well-prepared for their exams. Many of my students have advanced to competitive academic programs, achieving outstanding results with my guidance.
