Tutoring Experience

For the past 15 years, I've worked with students from various international curricula, focusing on mathematics for IB, A-Levels, and IGCSE. I've guided students through their coursework and exams, ensuring they build a strong foundation in maths and develop problem-solving skills.

I have also tutored students in AP Calculus, assisting them in understanding complex concepts and achieving top scores. My diverse experience with students from different backgrounds has allowed me to adapt my teaching methods to meet their unique needs and ensure their academic success.
